DIE PIONIERE von McHENRY COUNTY

(Last in a series of articles appearing in the DEUTSCH AMERIKANISCHE GESCHICHTSBLATTER between 1901-03, translated by Gisela Ohlrich.)

Part V, after research and personal inquiries by E. Mannhardt (cont´d.)

With some exceptions these Rhine-Prussians were the first German settlers to arrive in the area. An exception was the Alsatian MARTIN HOFFMANN who at the beginning of the 1820´s or even earlier had immigrated to Pennsylvania. Before coming to McHenry County he lived in Michigan for five years, between 1831 and 1836. His sons, AARON born in 1824, PHILIPP born in 1828, ALBERT, MARTIN and WILLIAM, still spoke German. AARON was in Colorado in the late 1850´s and served as militia captain against the Indians. The descendants of AARON and PHILIPP still live here in town.

The first Germans to directly immigrate here were JACOB SCHMITT, NICOLAUS ADAMS and NICOLAUS FRETT. All three were from Hirten, district Mayen, government district of Koblenz, and they brought along family. They were brought to Johnsburg from Chicago by MORITZ BAUMGARDEN on an oxcart. They settled where the church was later built and were, therefore, the true founders of Johnsburg. FRETT´s house was closest to the church and there he opened a pub for the benefit of the churchgoers. The old ADAMS farm was situated only a few hundred paces from the church. Until this year (1902) the farm was in the hands of the oldest son CASTOR ADAMS and was recently bought by MARTIN SCHMITT, grandson of FRIEDRICH, and some of the sisters for $90 an acre, the highest price ever paid for land in this area.

As far as we can ascertain, the following immigrants came in the year 1842. From the district of Adenau came NIKOLAUS MOLITOR from Lind, JOHANN P. BELL from Ahrschau, HEINRICH THELEN from Oberbaar, JOHANN SCHÄFER from Welschenbach, WILHELM KLEIN from Langenfeld, JOHANN MILLER from Langenfeld, MATTHIAS LAY from Siebenbach, PETER MAY from Herresbach, MARTIN MAY from the neighborhood of Steinen and JOHANN FREUND from Engeln; from the district Mayen came FRIEDRICH SCHMITT from Munk, STEPHEN BANTES from Hirten, NIKOLAUS WAGNER from Kirch-Esch, and JOHANN FRIEDRICH from Monreal; from the district Daun came JOHANN MULLER from Kirch or Hinterweiler, NIKOLAUS HESS from Mehren, M. BLAMEUSER and MATTHIAS GILLES from Mehren, JOHANN ADAM BLEK from Steinbach, FRIEDRICH LAIKEN and MICHAEL GERADS; also, from one of these three districts came PETER SABEL, FRANZ SCHMIDT, NICOLAUS MAURER, MICHAEL WENKEL and FRANZ KILLMANN. To these another man was added, the only non-Prussian JOHANN GERHARD STILLING from the area of the Munsterlande.

The year 1843 brought the Rhine-Prussians GEORG SCHEIDT, CHRISTIAN KAUTH and wife from the district Daun, MICHAEL MULLER, JOHANN P. SCHMITT and HERMANN BENOLKEN, and the Münsterlander

HEINRICH BREFELD; 1843 or 1844 the Rhine-Prussians MATTHIAS SCHIMMELS and AUGUST and CHRISTIAN KATTNER; 1844 the Rhine-Prussians JOHANN FESTER, JOHANN KRETZGEN and the little KRETZGEN, B. BECKER, JOHANN SCHANZ, JOHN ADAM MULLER and from the Münsterlande BERNHARD and HEINRICH KERNEBECK; 1845 FRANZ ROTHÄRMEL who had been in Ohio before and whose six sons were serving in the war, NICOLAUS DEGEN from Lukem, district Mayen, and very likely also MATTHIAS DIEDERICH.

Arriving in 1846 were NICOLAUS HÜMANN from Hirten, JOHANN PETER and MATHIAS FREUND from Engeln, and NICOLAUS SCHUMACHER, another JOHANN SCHAFER, WILHELM and JOHANNES MÜLLER from Langenfeld; 1847 or 1848 JOHANN PITZEN from Niederbarr, district Adenau; 1849 JOHANN WEBER from Kirch-Esch and very likely the Hollander GERHARD von NEYNATTEN; 1850 JOSEPH SCHÄFER, and from Engeln STEPHAN FREUND; 1851 JOHANN HÜMANN from Hirten; 1851 or 1852 JOHANN NIMSGERN from the district Saarbrücken; 1852 or 1853 STEPHAN NEISS; 1853 the brother and sister JOSEPH and ANNA HÜMANN; 1854 HEINRICH MÜLLER; 1855 JOSEPH JUSTEN; 1856 JOHANN P. HÜMANN with wife and son MATTHIAS from Hirten; 1857 NICOLAUS FREUND from Luxen (sic); and 1859 or 1860 another STEPHAN FREUND from Kirch-Esch, district Mayen.

Besides the above whose year of immigration we can ascertain rather correctly, we must also mention others who immigrated during the 1840's. ANNA MARIE SCHMITT, a widow from Weiler, came with her son PETER and other children, all of whom moved away, the daughters going to Minnesota. Also came JOHANN J. V. HECKEN-MÜLLER and JOSEPH KÖNIG. Further came JOHANN STOFFEL from the district Kochem, the PFANNENSTIELS and the BRAUNS; the descendants of these families live in Burton Township. Also came PETER MILLER from Kirch-Esch and FRANZ RÖSING; the descendants of these families live in Volo. We should also mention the immigration of J. ALBERT UPHOFF which probably took place in the 1850's.

Settlers whose names can be found in the churchyard cemetery but whose memory is all but forgotten include JOHANN W. HAUNGS, JOHANN BENTFELD, MATTHIAS SCHUMACHER (died 1876, 71 years old), ADELHEID HOMANN, B. SCHÜNEMANN and wife ANNA E. (1790-1868), and MAXIMILIAN HUFF (1800-1871) and wife ANNA MARIA.

Some of these settlers served well in public affairs, especially MR. JOHN HÜMANN who served as pathmaster and town collector and has served as town assessor for the past 28 years.

When the political situation became threatening the following sons of German settlers rushed to arms: PETER THELEN; GEORG, JACOB, PETER, JOSEPH (died), SAM H. (died) and NICOLAUS, all sons of FRANZ ROTHÄRMEL; NIKOLAUS SCHMITT son of JACOB; JOHANN B. SCHMITT; WILHELM FRETT; Sergeant JOHANN FRETT who died accidentally while cutting trees; _____ BOCKER missing in action; MARTIN, PETER and MARCUS NIESEN; PETER AHRENDS; MATTHIAS KEHR; JOHANN P. HEYMER; AUGUST KATTNER and ADAM BLEK.

CRYSTAL LAKE MEMORABILIA.... "Ben Pingree's Bar-B-Q Stand", located on the corner of Route 14 and Pingree Road, had its beginnings in the early 1920's. Ben built the small frame building and operated the business during the so-called "boot-leg" era. Mr. PINGREE was born in 1883, was adopted and came to live in Crystal Lake as a young boy. He first lived on a farm at Silver Lake. The people who adopted him were related to the PINGRYs who operated the Crystal Lake Hotel. Ben's father changed the spelling of the name due to postal problems.

Ben acquired 87 acres of land where the bar-b-q stand was located on Route 14, where he also lived. After the boot-leg era, he obtained a beer license and the business then became known as "Pingree's Tavern".

Ben married the former Alma HOLLST of Crystal Lake in 1936. Her husband, Fred KITTREDGE, had passed away. He was known here in Crystal Lake as Fred CASPER; however his legal name was Fred KITTREDGE, as Mr. CASPER was his step-father. Alma brought her youngest son, Fred Jr., here where he still resides with his wife and family.

An addition was added onto the tavern and Alma became the cook, having had experience running a boarding house in Valparaiso, Indiana. The business prospered and was well known for its bar-b-q's and home-made pies plus many specials. There were also seven cabins on the property for travelers.

Many people in the area remember Bozo, the black bear which was kept in an outdoor cage. After many years, Ben sold him to a zoo in Wisconsin.

Alma passed away in 1950. Ben still owned the property and business when he died in 1961. The house still remains today and faces Pingree Road, which was name after Ben, but the business is now known as "Sneakers" and all the land has been sold.

[This was submitted by Cathy Plodzien of Crystal Lake to the Sesquicentennial History Committee. Because of the valuable genealogical information, I am including it in our Quarterly also. Ed.]

USING CENSUS TO ESTABLISH BIRTH DATES

From SOUTHERN ECHOES, Augusta Genealogical Society

Can you figure out when a person was born by going through census records? The answer is that you can narrow it down to a certain number of years, such as 1774-1775. Begin with the 1790 census and go through the 1830 one, then "decipher" what you've found:

1790 census	under age 16	b. 1774 to 1790	(16 year time span)
1800 census	age 16-25	b. 1774 to 1784	(10 year time span)
1810 census	age 26-45	b. 1765 to 1784	(19 year time span)
1820 census	age 45 or over	b. 1775 or before
1830 census	age 50-60	b. 1770 to 1780	(10 year time span)

By the 1790 census he could not have been born before 1774.
By the 1830 census he could not have been born after 1780.

You now have a set of possible birth years for your ancestor: 1774-1780. But let's see if we can narrow it down further. You already know that his first child was born in 1799. That means he married ca. 1798. The one thing you don't know is how old he was when he married: the usual standard used in research is four generations to a hundred years, and that means marriage at age 25 for the men. To play it on the safe side I always figure two dates, marriage at age 20 and marriage at age 25 -- that way you get another set of dates to work from.

Here you have a man who married about 1798. Deduct 25 (his age) and you come up with the year 1773. Now deduct his age at 20 and you have 1778. So he was born between the years 1773 and 1778, using this method. Now referring to the set of birth years derived from the census records you see two things: he couldn't have been born before 1774 (1790 census) nor was he born after 1775 (1820 census).

You now have a new set of possible birth years for your ancestor -- 1774 to 1775 -- AND you have narrowed the time span down to two years. It's much easier to search a two-year supply of vital records than a 16-year one.

CORRESPONDENCE FROM MCIGS MEMBERS:

I have a follow-up on the Social Security Records info published in the first Quarterly of 1989. FEE SCHEDULE: Microprint of Form SS-5, or search for date and place of death (SSN provided) - $7.00; Microprint of Form SS-5, or search for date and place of death (SSN not provided or incorrect) - $16.50; Search for Claim File - $14.00; Photocopies - 10¢/page; Certification - $10.00; Postage - current postal rates; Special Services - actual cost. When you are writing to the Social Security Office, state that you are requesting a copy of a deceased person's file - do not request Form SS-5 - which is an application for assignment of a Social Security number. For info write to: SSA Freedom of Information Office, 4-J-9 West High Rise Building, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore, MD 21235 (submitted by MCIGS member, Gene Noterman)

"Just received the July issue of the MCIGS NEWSLETTER and noted that the topic for the meeting was Patriotic Societies. Wanted to make sure that everyone knew of the United States Daughters of 1812 - enclosing a brochure on same. This organization is composed of descendants of persons who rendered civil, military or naval service from the end of the Revolutionary War to the end of the War of 1812, 1784 through 1815. I have served as Texas State President and am now the National Chairman of 1812 Markers and Grave Locations - so I always want to let people know of this society." (submitted by MCIGS member Louise Holubec)

"Good News! I will soon receive copies of the 1920's diaries of Alford H. POUSE, McHenry village attorney, 1921-1924 and McHenry Co. State's Attorney, 1924-1927. I will be sure to abstract all the names in the important diaries for the MCIGS CONNECTION. (submitted by Craig Pfannkuche)

ST. MARY OF THE ASSUMPTION CATHOLIC CHURCH - DEATH RECORDS

Extracted by Phyllis Bauer

St. Mary Of The Assumption Catholic Church was established in 1894 in the city of McHenry. For the most part, the members of this parish were from the families of German descent who had started out in Johnsburg, located north of McHenry. We thank the Reverend James Gaynor for granting permission for these records to be published and John Heidler for typing the original manuscript.

EARLY SETTLERS OF JOHNSBURG COMMEMORATED AT ANNUAL SAUFEN UND SPIEL

Visitors from Germany make it a very special two day event.

by Phyllis J. Bauer

In recognition of the German immigrants who came and settled in the Johnsburg area 150 years ago, the Community Club of Johnsburg sponsored a day of family fellowship and community history on Saturday, September 7, 1991. This event preceded the club's annual Saufen und Spiel which was held the following day.

Special guests for the occasion were Dr. and Mrs. Hanns Egon Freund of Bad Tölz, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter May of Hirten, Germany. Bad Tölz is south of München (Munich) and Hirten is located in the Eifel region where many of the emigrants to the Johnsburg area originated.

Dr. Freund has spent the past 40 years accumulating family data regarding not only the Freund family, but also data for many of the related families who make up the early population of the Johnsburg area. He has finalized his material and has had a single book printed, entitled Freund Generations, During Three Centuries in the Eifel. He has presented this book to the McHenry County Genealogical Society.

Peter May of Hirten is related to the Peter May who arrived in Johnsburg in 1842. This earlier Peter May has many descendants in the Johnsburg and McHenry area. Neither Mr. May nor his wife speak English, but with the help of those in attendance who do have a command of the language, many persons were able to converse and get acquainted. Mr. May was heard to remark that he has more relatives in the U. S. than he does in Germany.

The last time Dr. and Mrs. Freund visited the area was in 1982. At that time they were here for a gathering of Freund descendants in what was called the "Freund Fest." There were approximately 750 persons who attended that memorable occasion. Many of those attending were from out of state and many of them returned for the latest Johnsburg family event.

Some of the Johnsburg settlers or their children left the area many years ago, starting as early as 1855. Stacyville, Iowa was one of the places that has a large representation of persons descended from early settlers of Johnsburg. There were a number of visitors at the Settlers Day from Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan, who are descendants of Eifelers.

The celebration of Settlers Day started at 9:00 a.m. with a special mass at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, located in Johnsburg. Celebrants were Rev. Fr. Everett Hiller, a native son and Rev. Fr. Melvin Hemann from Iowa who's ancestry goes back to Johnsburg.

St. John the Baptist Church has been the center of the lives of the settlers and their families, since they came to this country. The beautiful stained glass windows of the church are in memory of some of these early families and are a testament to the faith they brought with them.

After the mass, the nearby Community Club Hall became the center of activity.
The program portion of the day was a short address by Dr. Freund, with the presentation of his Freund book to MCIGS and a slide presentation by Helmut (Tom) Mueller, showing the villages and countryside of the Eifel region, where some of the immigrants originated. Mr. Mueller also elaborated on the history and geography of the area.

Persons who have gathered family data were on hand to show their family information, pictures, etc. to those who had mutual family lines. Some of the family names represented were: Adams, Braun, Diedrich, Freund, Hiller, Huemann, Justen, Kennebeck, May, Miller/Mueller, Nell, Pitzen, Schaefer, Smith/Schmitt, Wagner and many others. A photocopy machine was on hand for a lively exchange of family material, as well as addresses and requests for copies of pictures. MCIGS members present and sharing their family data were Mimi DeBreau, Rosemary Moody, Dave Miller, Terry Miller, Paul Mueller, Elaine Nell, Gene Noterman, Everett Thomas, Dorie Tonyan, Barbara Schroeder, and Bob Sutton. Others were Trudy Schuch, Chuck Skittino, Al May, Ed Schroeder and Alex Justen.

Other items of interest were the displays of family charts and pictures; maps showing where the people came from; a list of the names of early settlers and the dates they arrived in the United States. A German Oompahpa band from Bavaria that was starting a national tour was another highlight, as it played German melodies.

On Sunday, the Community Club's annual Saufen und Spiel Parade was held, with Dr. Freund as the Grand Marshal. His wife Astrid sat with him in the back of a convertible, smiling and waving to the crowds. Peter and Maria May were also honored with a ride in a convertible as part of the parade.

The Community Club's grounds provided the space for games and rides for the children, horseshoes and volley ball tournaments for the adults. Crafts were for sale also, with the entire event ending in the late afternoon.

PETER F. BENOLKEN Peter F. BENOLKEN met his instant death at 6:15 Thursday evening November 4th, 1915, when the tender of a Great Northern engine struck the Ford car he was driving as he was crossing the railroad track at St. Cloud and was thrown headlong from the machine onto the track in front of the oncoming engine. He was a native of Illinois born at Johnsburg, McHenry county on May 18th, 1867 and was 48 years, 5 months and 16 days old when killed.

Then about two years of age, Mr. BENOLKEN came to Minnesota with his parents and lived with them on the homestead in section two of Oak township, now a part of the village of Freeport, until grown up. He also received his education, attending common school in Dist. No. 102, and later learned the blacksmith trade in the John BOLIG smithy, conducted a blacksmith shop for himself in this village for a time and in 1891 entered a saloon business at Kent, Minnesota. Later he worked on the railroad and was section foreman under August KOENEMANN as road master. In 1897 or 8 he returned to Freeport, for a while in the employ of George UHLENKOTT in Hotel Freeport. He also operated the Interstate elevator several years, owned the dray line for a while, conducted a saloon in the MICKLISH building several years. It was while engaged in this business that he resolved to abstain from drinking intoxicating liquors and remained true to his resolution. At various times he was identified in dealing in farm implements, buying and selling live stock. He was considered as one of the best personal property auctioneers in the county. From the time of the organization of the Freeport Farmers Company, Mr. BENOLKEN was its manager. During the years from 1903 to 1906, he was president of the village council of Freeport and proved himself an honest and capable man in handling the village affairs. He was elected again to that office last spring.

In 1892 Peter BENOLKEN was married to Miss Anna MORMANN who with five children, Frank, Dina, George, Clemens, and Edith, survive him. Other relatives of the deceased are three brothers, Herman of Holdingford, John of Melrose and Joseph of New Munich, and two sisters, Mrs. SCHULTENOVER of Melrose and Mrs. Herman ROSE of this village. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Henry KLASEN. His father, Frank BENOLKEN, who was a former county commissioner and also representative of this district to the legislature died on October 4th 1906. Deceased is also mourned by his uncle, Henry BENOLKEN, living south of town; Mrs. P. FRIEDRICKS of Melrose, Mrs. M. LINDEN of Norton, Kan; Mrs. Joe TOENJAN of Waukegan and Mrs. Wm. COSSMAN of McHenry, Ill., aunts from his fathers side and Mrs. John BENOLKEN of Beardsley; Mrs. P. SCHREINER of McHenry, Ill., and Mrs. Mary KLIPP of Kansas, aunts from his mothers side and scores of cousins scattered all over the western states. The deceased was a beneficial member of the local C.O.F. Court and German Aid Society.

The funeral took place on Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the local Sacred Heart church, Rev. Fr. MAURUS, O.S.B., conducting a solemn requiem assisted by Rev. SCHEUER of Holdingford. Interment was made in the Sacred Heart cemetery, the pallbearers were: Hubert THELEN, Herm. SCHOENER, Henry BORMES, Leo ROSEN, John BORGERDING and Fred BEUTNER, Henry WOEBKENBERG carrying the cross.

Among those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Clemence ATHMANN of Mahnomen, Mr. and Mrs. BENOLKEN of Beardsley, Miss Mary BENOLKEN of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. H.C. WATERCOTT and sons Frank and Henry of Foley, Messrs. and Mesdames Herman and B.E. SCHOENER, Casper MAEHREN, Gerhard BRUNING, Herman KOWITZ, Peter ZIRBES and Mrs. Jos. LEMMELL of St. Cloud, Mr. and Mrs. SCHOENBORN of Lake George, Mrs. Ed KOHLER of Buckman, Mr. and Mrs. KOLSER of Greenwald, beside the brothers and sisters and all the surrounding villages and adjoining townships were well represented.

Peter F. BENOLKEN was a big man with a big heart and was highly respected by all who knew him. The family and relatives have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. EMIGRATION FROM THE COUNTY ADENAU AND RIVER AHR AREA

Submitted by Uwe Kruse

[This article was published in the Adenau News in 1933. Photocopies of the original were sent to us by MCIGS member, Uwe Kruse. The following is a translated transcript, edited only to alphabetize surnames rather than listing by emigration year. There appears to be no literal translation for the term, "Buergermeisterei". However, we believe it is equivalent to a district or divisional territory.]

Extra Edition from Nr. 157 and 159 of the Adenau Newspaper
Building Blocks for the History of Emigration from the county Adenau and the Springs area of the river Ahr
Reports by the Institute for Historic Notes on the country of the Rhineland from the University Bonn

In December, 1932 we published in these columns (Adenau News, Nrs. 284, 286, 290, 292, 294, 297, 299 and 301) a rather long article about the emigration from the High Eifel Region and, thereby promised more publishings of various material. Today's News edition is going to be the start. With the following reports, we are not going to go into a closed article, but rather give you single pictures to build a foundation of building blocks for a story pertaining to the emigration from the area Adenau and the area of the birth of the river Ahr. With this we are expressing our fervent hope that many readers of the Adenau News here in Germany, as well as in America, will take this opportunity to get in touch with us with more news and memories, so that we may fill in the gaps and therefore make the historic details all the more successful.

We have made it our task to find out about the stay of our emigrants, as well as their fate, in America. Let us start with the emigrants of the first big wave of emigration from the Adenau area in the years 1841 and 1842. First, space is given to an excerpt of Kinkel's Ahr, which has been mentioned previously in this newspaper. Gottfried Kinkel: "The Ahr" Bonn 1849. After a description of the bad economic conditions, under which the Ahr region then suffered, we need to mention the following:

> "Here and there one must not be too surprised, when in a particular rural area the longing awakes to find a happier homeland somewhere, even though one has diligently labored and yet has known the most bitter sorrows. Most emigrants in the summer of 1842 went down the Rhine river, especially those from the above mentioned area, Adenau. Yet at the same time, this longing had already gotten hold of the inhabitants of the vineyard region, which is situated closer to the mouth of the river. It is touching to see how everywhere, and here all the more, the emigrants left an unforgettably beautiful country. And yet, this longing for a foreign land had swept through the entire Ahr valley this particular summer. Very old people and children went along; houses and belongings were gotten rid of at half value; without the emigrants there were no villages left near the Upper Ahr. Whole villages thought of leaving entirely; the village Huemmel, near Aremberg, thought of dissolving their entire village government and rights. They had wanted to sell their common forest area to the Count of Aremberg and then move out, with the priest leading the way with the flag of the village and the cross.
> Brothers were divided, the one brother took the money and went ahead towards overseas; the other stayed behind on their inherited land with family belongings so that both of them would be assured of their goods. Daily letters arrived from relatives in America to ask the remaining relatives to join them. The mass of emigration went via Amsterdam to New York to the state of Michigan, where the newly built city of Detroit was mostly inhabited by Germans. There these people help the new arrivals in a most brotherly way. 22 Catholic families from the Eifel, in true German way, soon named a priest and a teacher to their posts; thereby the succeeding emigrants are welcomed into orderly circumstances. Agriculture is their main occupation, however tradesmen are just as much at home there."

As we are surmising from Kinkel's notes, there is not much mentioned about the fate and ambitions of the emigrants. If we are to learn more about the individuals, we have to definitely learn the names of the emigrants. Therefore we shall bring you a list of theses names, as far as we can discover them for the years 1837-1844. The names are put together by individual years, as well as villages and municipalities.

EMIGRATION FROM HERSCHBACH

Submitted by Uwe Kruse

*"In the last century a lot of people from the village Herschbach emigrated to the USA. I send you a copy of an article about their emigration. This report is an extract from a book about the history of Herschbach and was published in 1938. Dr. FREUND listed all these people in his book too. There is only one difference. Dr. FREUND described the emigrant Peter Joseph MÜLLER (20.04.1833 page 48) as Johann Peter MÜLLER. The emigrants Mathias STENZER and Johann SCHUMACHER returned to Herschbach. Johann SCHUMACHER emigrated twice and returned again. In 1939 all the citizens of Herschbach left their home because the military used this area as a military training area. After the war only a few citizens returned." [Editor's Note: The following is a translation of the article which MCIGS Member Uwe Kruse submitted. It is interesting to note that with each article submitted by Uwe—and there have been several—new German research sources are revealed.]

It is well known that during the 19th century many people from the Eifel region left their homeland and emigrated to America. While the greatest contingent of emigrants originated from the southern part of Germany in the 18th century and also in the beginning of the 19th century, in the 1830s the thoughts were being formed also in Prussia to find one's luck and happiness in the new world and these ideas sprang from the government district of Koblenz.

Gottfried KINKEL wrote in his 1846 published book, The Ahr, Landscape, History and Ways of the People, that the reason for the emigration was "that most of the land was not suitable for regular cultivation, especially not the land in the region of Adenau. Partly it is too stony and uneven because of the high mountains around there and down in the valley itself much of the soil has been filled with silt from the great floods of 1804 and thereby having been rendered totally unproductive. Also the lack of good roads prevented the timber trade from becoming successful, whereas it is nowadays a thriving business and one of the foremost income-producing ventures of our area."

1.) Appendix: The source material for the explanations I gratefully received from Mr. Josef SCHEBEN in Rheinbach, the extremely industrious researcher in the emigration history of the former district Adenau.

2.) Appendix: In regards to the flood and other devastating weather conditions, I found the information in Stramberg #3, 10, 138 of the district book Herschbach and also all the church annals of the parishes within the Ahr valley all wrote about it.

Many inhabitants left their old homeland. The direction of the emigration went via Amsterdam and New York to the state of Michigan and later to the state of Wisconsin. Many found a new home in the newly built city of Detroit...

The letters written by those who happily and safely made it across the big water and extolled America as the "Blessed Land" caused many families and single persons to go there as well and find their luck in the new land. Often, they were industrious young people who went abroad and really made something of themselves in the new world. However, many others, who had gotten into trouble at home [sic: the ground had gotten too hot under their feet] and who "had not invented the work" [a German euphemism for laziness, still used today] went there believing that they could lead lives without toil or sweat in the west. Many ended up bitterly disappointed and disappeared under miserable circumstances. Nothing further ever was heard of these unlucky people...

In his writings, KINKEL mentioned the importance of the letters from abroad...The result of these was a total epidemic of emigration in the years 1841/42. From the government district Adenau alone 28 people emigrated in the year 1841, 116 left in 1842. The government district Virneburg gave 138 emigrants in 1841, 116 left in 1842...The whole region of Adenau with its six government districts gave up 809 wander-happy inhabitants in the years 1841/42 from a total sum of about 23,000 inhabitants. In the following years, this strong wave of emigrants reduced itself considerably, no doubt due to the unhappy stories from abroad. In September 1842, the district magistrate of Adenau is heard saying: "By the way, the emigration fancy seems to be dissipating since we are receiving such sad tales from the emigrants."

Also, Herschbach plays a role in these events: 1841/42, there were 15 people who left us by emigration. Also later on, even after the war of 1870/71, several villages have tried their luck in Michigan. All in all our community had counted 38 losses via emigration to the new land. Of those, two had returned to resume their lives here. With the starting of the industry in our fatherland the emigration had reached its end. The surplus of our population, especially since 1875, went to the industrial towns on the Lower Rhine.

Now there are following the names of the 38 emigrants along with the birth dates and year of emigration:

IS THIS YOUR FAMILY?

The following dedication was found in a family history book, written by Len Hilts: "This book is dedicated to the more than 1000 members of the Hilts, Dunne, Magee, Bonn and Worth Families of the past who have given my wife and myself so much enjoyment by lurking deep in old records, hiding behind rolls of microfilm, peeking out of old newspapers, and by being generally elusive. They have made it a challenge, never once giving in easily or making the hunt too simple. Sly, wily, sometimes downright sneaky, they have changed their names, died in the wrong places, given all their children identical names, traveled without leaving tracks, married persons of the same name, changed occupations in mid-life, spelled their names 27 different ways, stayed away from home during censuses, lied about their ages, and have done about everything possible to confound those who would seek to collect them into a family tree."
